

Transportation Engineer

Sheladia Associates is currently seeking an energetic, highly motivated, and detailed oriented Transportation Engineer. This position will be based out of our Rockville, MD office.

The responsibilities for this position include but are not limited to:

- Plan, design, and manage transportation projects
- Prepare and evaluate proposals
- Act as a liaison between clients and home office when traveling
- Manage transportation projects from the home office and be able to travel to implement short term assignments on projects depending on skills and experience overseas
- Knowledgeable of International donors: ADB, World Bank, African Development, USAID and MCC
- Ability to travel Internationally

Minimum requirements:

- Master's degree in Civil Engineer
- 10-15 years of experience
- Registered Professional Engineer (PE)
- Ability to travel 30%